ROUND 3 RDFNL PREVIEWS

with Grace Bibby

Melton Centrals versus Romsey

Both clubs will be desperate for a win in this game as they look to take home the Darren Weavel Cup. It is also a game that means a lot for Melton Centrals they know they have improved and will be competitive against a lot of teams this year but Romsey is a game they feel like they can win. Romsey were competitive against Wallan in their round one clash but this will one they want to win.

From the Coaches:

Melton Centrals: Our errors were really costly last week. They were quick and could out run us when we turned the ball over. We were poor by foot. It was good that in the second half we kept fighting. We still have a few players missing and likely Jake Thornton Gielen will miss after hurting his back last week.

Romsey: We looked really good in patches in our first game. We have had a week off now to fine tune a couple of things and we are keen to get out there and compete again this weekend. Melton Centrals are a team on the rise and we will need to play good football for four quarters if we are to win.

Players to watch

Melton Centrals: Dylan Jobson has kicked nine goals from his first two games and is providing Centrals with a target up forward.

Romsey: Jack Jedwab kicked three goals in their opening round and will be a threat up forward for the Redbacks.

Prediction: Romsey to win in a close one.

Diggers Rest versus Lancefield

Diggers Rest have had a great start to the year with two really good wins under their belt. Lancefield started with the bye and have had just one hit out against Woodend Heskett. This could be a bit of a danger game for the Burra Boys after their four days turn around from their Anzac Day match.

From the Coaches:

Diggers Rest: It was a pretty scrappy win for us on Tuesday but we found a way to win which was pleasing. We only have a four-day turnaround so it's good we got through without any injuries and will be ready to take on Lancefield who look like a much-improved outfit.

Lancefield: Diggers Rest are always really tough and the fact they have 22 blokes who all play their part makes it tough. We were really happy with how we played and competed and, in the end, Woodend just turned it on in the last quarter. They kicked some incredible goals that most defenses wouldn't stop. We have taken great confidence from that game and accept the challenge again this week. We think Diggers Rest will be another step up.

Players to watch

Diggers Rest: Jaidyn Caruana took home the ANZAC Day medal for his courage on Tuesday.

Lancefield: Zach Webb was best on ground in the Tigers loss to Woodend Heskett last week and will look to continue his run of form this week.

Prediction: Diggers Rest to continue their winning ways and start the season 3-0

ROUND 3 RDFNL PREVIEWS

with Grace Bibby

Wallan versus Western Rams

Wallan have had a strong start to the season but we still don't know who they will go against the powerhouse teams. We know Western Rams are still improving and continue to close the gap which in the past has been margins of well over 100 points. Western Rams are heading in the right direction and a big upset could be just what they need to light the spark.

From the Coaches:

Wallan: The boys played really well especially in the first half where they jumped out to an early lead. Full credit to the midfielders who continue to drive the standard. Patrick Mahony and Hayden Gill were outstanding as were Patrick Baccari and Jacob Langbourne. Playing on the smaller junior ground will make things interesting.

Western Rams: It was good to come out and quick a few goals. We know Riddell are a good side and probably missing a few but we also know our good football is good football we just need to be able to do it for longer. We really let ourselves down with a lapse early and we worked hard to get ourselves back into it. We rolled the dice late and it didn't come off. That's football. We will sit down and watch the Wallan tape but we know they are a good side and we will be up against it today. We just want to keep building on what we have started. Special Congrats to Tyson who had a little bundle of joy arrive during the week.

Players to watch

Wallan: Hayden Gill played not one but two matches of senior football last weekend after getting a call up to the VFL on Sunday. Huge effort from a young kid that will only get better with the more football he plays.

Western Rams: Camdyn White played his first game of senior football at the Rams and enjoyed his freedom around the forward line and on the wing.

Prediction: Wallan to be too good for the Rams who will be gallant in defeat.

MELTON CENTRALS FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB*Club Notes*

The foundations of Melton Central Football & Netball Club began the year before its inception and was the dream of one man.

Darren Weavell and a few of his closest mates spent most of 1995 working long hours to establish a third Melton side. The intention was to field second division senior and reserves sides in the Riddell District Football League. Darren and his young committee negotiated with Melton Council and local sporting clubs to find a home and were intent on building a family orientated club by ensuring women were represented in the netball competition.

Darren became the founding president of Melton Centrals in 1996 and was revered for his passion, work ethic and vision to provide a club for many local players and mates. They wanted to bring the fun back into local footy, and boy did they do such that!

Darren remained the President of Melton Centrals for 5 years. He represented the club in the RDFL Interleague and was named full back for our Team of the Era side.

Thank you Darren for your wonderful commitment in providing our community a club that has made many wonderful memories. Darren, you will be missed by not only our club, but by many of those in the Melton community and the RDFL community.

RIP Weavs! #44

DARREN Weavell ... he'll line up for the New Melton Centrals Football Club.

Another great weekend of football and netball. Melton Centrals put on perfect weather and we had the opportunity to wear for the first time our clash / heritage jumpers.

CLASH / HERITAGE JUMPERS

A few years ago we started working towards obtaining clash jumpers for the teams. With the support of grants from the TAC and #TACBANDTOGETHER round, and sponsorship from Hogan's Hotel and Pretty Sally Bakehouse we were able to purchase these much needed clash jumpers.

In the process we have also learned a lot about the heritage of Wallan FNC and the jumpers worn in the past, assisting in the choice of colours. With the assistance of LOCO and the approval of RDFNL, please see a picture of the jumpers below.

Thank you to everyone who has assisted with this process, particularly Robbie Fowler and in turn Conrad Robert's for the photo and history.

HISTORY:

Up until 1939 Wallan always wore a maroon guernsey and the club was referred to as the Maroons. The Wallan East team wore Richmond colours for most of the time.

The Wallan and Donnybrook teams combined in 1940 and we believe that they wore gold and green which would have been the old Donnybrook jumper. In 1940 and from 1945 to 1948 the team wore gold and green guernseys.

From 1949 to 1964 the Wallan teams joined to become Wallan United and wore the St. Kilda jumper. The 1964 season was the last appearance of this jumper as the Wallan FNC had to change their colours when they transferred back into the RDFL in 1965 because of a clash with the Trentham guernsey.

Wallan United Football Club (Panton Hill) in 1961.

Club Notes

Rams travel to Wallan this week for what is looking to be another great round of Football and Netball. The Footballers will take on Wallan for the Ray Ogston award. Ray was a valued player and member who lost his life on the field in Wallan back in 2000. We thank Wallan for the ongoing respect for Rays passing and we hope to honour his memory with a win this year. On the netball courts our u19s are hoping to continue with their winning streak and our B,C and A-grade are hopeful for a win against a very competitive Wallan.

Last week we had a few exciting quarters of football when we took on Riddell, but unfortunately the results didn't reflect the improvements we are seeing across both our Reserves and Senior teams. With a number of new players at the club we know it will take some time to settle but we are encouraged at the level of comradery already established in the group. Both games were played in good spirit and we thank Riddell for their words of encouragement and their hospitality.

We were also very excited to debut our new clash Jumper with a stunning Aboriginal design by artist and club sponsor Tara-Rose Butterworth-Gonebale from MarliMarli Art. The jumper is an exciting new addition to an ever-evolving club, watch this space for more to come!

Over on the netball courts our u19s are continuing to show why they were last year's premiers! The other team results were not in our favour however they were great competitive games and close scores which we hope to keep building on. Our A-graders had a great battle with worthy challengers, coming close in the 3rd but falling short in the final quarter, unfortunately we were short a few of our regular players so we are hopeful to see some improvements in the coming weeks. Well done to Riddell, a great day was had by all!

A big thanks to all volunteers who have helped over the past two rounds, we have asked a lot of everyone, and you have certainly delivered! We have a big few weeks coming up with a club fundraiser event "Frat Party" after Round 4 on May 6th! We hope you all get behind the Rams and attend this night, family and friends all welcome! Remember, we are not just a club, we are a community! Go Rams!

WOODEND-HESKET FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB*Club Notes*

The Woodend Heskett Football Netball Club played their Round 3 match back on Good Friday against Riddell. Although the weather was terrible for most of the day, the day was a huge success for the club on and off the field. The weather didn't dampen the crowd and the day finished on a high with the Seniors first win against the reigning premier, since 2007. Special thanks to everyone who helped on the day to make it the success that it was.

Our twilight/night matches against Lancefield in Round 2 was another successful day for the club. This time the weather was perfect and it was wonderful to see so many families enjoying the football and netball in the sunshine. The Hawks nearly completed a clean sweep against Lancefield with all teams winning in football and netball except the 19's netball who played out a dramatic draw.

This weekend the club is super excited for the Senior Women's football team to start their season off against Mt Alexander at 2pm at Harcourt Recreation Reserve. We are thrilled to be participating in the inaugural competition and thank the league for all the hard work that has gone on behind the scenes to make this happen. We would like to thank local law firm Chink (HEP) Steel Solicitor who have signed as the major sponsor of the women's team in 2023.

We would like to wish all the players the best of luck for the season and can't wait to see them play at home in the next couple of weeks. Go Hawks!

The club is also looking forward to hosting Celebrating Women at the Nest on Saturday 13 May from 2pm. An event that celebrates the role women and girls play in the club whether as a player, volunteer or supporter. See the club's facebook page for full details.

GISBORNE GIANTS FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB

Club Notes

Round two of the RDFNL saw a confident Gisborne Giants bring a comfortable 81 point win over Riddells Creek FNC. The Giants midfield consistently dominated, giving the forwards plenty of supply of which they were able to capitalise on, resulting in the largest winning margin since joining the competition in 2022.

Its pleasing to see the Giants deliver on their game plan and the quality of playing performance come to fruition early in the season. To see growth and development in a short time is rewarding and will be tested over the next couple of rounds.

Our under 19s netballers came up against a strong Romsey in round two and were again valiant in defeat with a 10 goal loss. With the team still in its infancy, we look forward to watching the players and support crew on their journey and the synergies evolve over time to become strong contenders in the competition.

ROUND 1 WOMENS PREVIEWS

with Grace Bibby

Romsey versus Kyneton

Romsey have an eager group of players who cant wait to play their first game of competitive football. With 14 players making their debut this week the team will be inexperienced but they will have a nothing to lose attitude which could cause some concerns for Kyneton.

Kyneton will be hard to beat but they will likely spend the season as the hunted which is always dangerous.

This is a really exciting contest to open the competition on Friday under lights.

From the Club:

Romsey: We are really excited by how our Romsey side is taking shape. Our numbers have grown to 25 with great anticipation of what is to come. We are well led by our group of Nicole, Mackenzie and Sarah. We have a little bit of experience with Jo Brooke and Jess but we have 14 players making their debut and there is a real buzz around the club.

Kyneton: The team and club is really excited to join the league and competition. We think the Tigers will be a force in its first season and cant wait to play local clubs in the community and surrounds. Our round one team is looking strong after a good pre season under head coach Phil Hawkes and assistant coaches Bee Hateley and Kylie Munro.

Players to watch

Romsey: Nicole Steward is the captain of the Romsey Womens team and love the contested possession. She will love throwing herself in the thick of things.

Kyneton: Teagan Ainslie is eyeing off a fourth best and fairest at the club. You don't win three of them without being a special kind of player.

Prediction: Kyneton look to be a very well-established team on paper and should take the points in round one.

Macedon versus Melton

The is the tail of two different stories. Macedon are a newly formed team with little experience but are eager to get stuck in while Melton come across from the BFN. They have plenty of football years under their belt which will make them one of the tougher teams in the RDFNL Womens competition this season.

From the Club:

Macedon: Macedon are delighted to be playing round one of the inaugural season and their first ever home and away game at home. The club would like to wish all teams in the competition a rewarding and competitive season and we look forward to the rounds ahead.

Melton: Melton are looking forward to their first clash in the RDFNL women's competition. They will be led by Jordy Syme who returns as skipper after a best and fairest year last season. Joining her is Danielle Rocznik who has spent last year on the sidelines and will be eager to make an impact in a new competition.

Players to watch

Macedon: Keep an eye out for the Miles family with four of them donning the boots, one in the coaching ranks and one the leading trainer. They might be hard to miss.

Melton: Hard to go past their captain Jordy Syme. She is a class above and will be looking to get her team off to a strong start.

Prediction: Melton to start their season off with a win away from home.

Mount Alexander versus Woodend Heskett

Mount Alexander are a new club to join the RDFNL family in season 2023 and we are excited to see them in action this weekend. They take on Woodend Heskett who have had a strong female football program in the junior competition for some time now.

It will be interesting to see how both teams match up.

From the Club:

Mount Alexander: Mount Alexander Falcons are excited to kick off the season with the Riddell district Football Netball League on the Dja Dja Warrung country. We're playing today and building a community where women and gender diverse people play, live, compete and dream free of gender constraints.

Woodend Heskett: Our team is looking quite strong despite having a few players away. We have a few new girls this season and it will be awesome to see how they go. We have three pairs of sisters playing which is really exciting for the club. The Habibs, the Connells and the Bromleys. We are stoked to finally have a womens competition where our youth girls can transition into senior football. We had quite a few players that were aging out and this means they remain with the Hawks.

Players to watch

Mount Alexander: Nicole Tadpole forms part of the leadership team and absolutely loves the competitive nature of football. She will be in the contest looking for a few possessions come game day.

Woodend Heskett: Mariam Habib is a former league award winner and definitely knows how to find the football at junior level. Will she make the transition to dominating senior football we will have to wait to find out.

Prediction: Woodend Heskett to be too strong for Mount Alexander.

TACKLE YOUR FEELINGS

Essendon are partnering with the Tackle Your Feelings (TYF) program to make mental health training available to community coaches, in 2023. Tackle Your Feelings is a free mental health training program for community AFL coaches, as well as committee members and other club support staff. The program is delivered by a local psychologist and aims to help participants gain the tools to Understand, Recognise and Respond to signs of mental ill-health in their players. In 2021, the program was delivered to more than 4000 community coaches from 352 clubs across every Australian state and territory. 'Tackle your Feelings' was inspired by mental health education developed for AFL professional coaches and players, consisting of a face-to-face presentation from a local psychologist and additional online learning. Ambassadors include Leon Cameron, Alastair Clarkson, Nathan Buckley, Neville Jetta, Kara Antonio and Dylan Buckley also feature throughout the video content within the program. The program was formed by the AFL Coaches Association, AFL Players' Association and Zurich Insurance in 2018, after the tragic death of Adelaide coach Phil Walsh three years earlier.

How your club can get involved

Tackle Your Feelings is a free program and is available to your club in 2023.

Once coaches complete the training (workshop and online modules) they will have access to resources including blogs, podcasts and videos to assist with their ongoing learning. Participating clubs are eligible for the Tackle Your Feelings rewards program, which includes footballs, equipment and access to program ambassadors.

If your club wishes to get involved, please register your interest by contacting sabdilla@essendonfc.com.au

UMPIRES CORNER

by Paige Giles

OUT OF BOUNDS | FOLLOW THE JOURNEY OF OUR UMPIRES, BEYOND THE FIELD.

ARTICLE 2: The Junior Development Program and Beyond.

We talk with Seth Cornish on his transition from junior football into umpiring.

Seth, who has played for the Diggers Rest Football Club for the past 6 years decided to get into umpiring because his footy mates were coming onboard. He begun last year as part of the junior development program where he was able to learn the fundamentals of field umpiring. He also jumped across to boundary umpiring, where he was appointed an under 19's grand final.

In October last year, Seth broke his ankle and a part of his leg on a school surfing trip, he was in plaster for 2 months and a moon boot for a further 2 months. It's been a long recovery but Seth was committed to strengthening up his ankle in order to be back playing football and umpiring for the 2023 season. He is certainly a resilient young man!

Seth loves the fact that umpiring is not just a normal job! "You get to hang out with mates, earn some pocket money and get fit".

Seth looks up to his best mate Charlie Hynes, who he umpires and plays footy with. "Charlie mentors me and has taught me a lot which has really helped me improve over the last year and a half". In the next 5 years Seth can see himself transitioning into the reserves and seniors field.

Seth's advice to junior umpires who are thinking of joining is to "stay committed, go to training, look the part and network with other umpires to better your skillset".

Seth is saving his umpiring money for a trip to America with the family at the end of the year and his ultimate goal for umpiring this year is to be appointed to a reserves grand final.

WESTERN WATER NETBALL REPORT

by RDFNL Netball Manager Grace Bibby

Last week we covered how to be a good spectator and this week we are ticking off how to be a good sport on court.

Sportsmanship comes in many forms and helps make competitive games fun and enjoyable. Being a good sport fosters good habits and positive life skills both in and out of sports games, and is an important life skill for people of all ages.

What Are the Qualities of Good Sportsmanship?

Sportsmanship is more than just being nice to others. There are a few main qualities that contribute to sportsmanlike behaviour:

1. Be supportive. If you're losing, it's best not to take your disappointment out on your teammates. Being a team player is essential during team sports, where support can mean everything. In a game, players are doing their best, and everyone wants to win. People are more productive and efficient with positive reinforcement, and a few words of encouragement or high-fives can sometimes be all someone needs to get their head back into the game.

2. Have a positive attitude. Having a negative attitude about the game can bring down the whole team, making competition less fun for everyone. Childish or inappropriate behaviour can dampen the spirit of the game and make players seem immature. Positivity is an important trait, especially when playing team sports.

3. Be respectful. Whether you win or lose, it's essential to show respect to others. Avoid being passive aggressive or insulting your peers over their gameplay. Even if you suspect someone of cheating, (which may not necessarily be the case), hurling harsh words at your opponents or teammates can damage your reputation, and the respect others have for you. Whining about calls or arguing with umpires also demonstrates unsportsmanlike conduct.

4. Be willing to learn. If you end up losing, rather than take it out on the opposition, try to learn from your mistakes. For instance, if you make a lot of forced errors during a tennis match, practice returning the balls that made you struggle the most. If you hit a lot of your backhands into the net instead of down the line winners, work on that technique to increase your chances of future success.

5. Practice self-control. Games can get emotional, but players should always make a conscious effort to control their emotions and focus on the game. Damaging sporting equipment or playing surfaces is a sure-fire way to be a bad sport and can also embarrass your teammates.

Why is Good Sportsmanship Important?

Good sportsmanship is important because it makes competitive play more enjoyable for everyone. While winning might feel like the most important thing during sporting events like tennis matches or basketball games, good sportsmanship teaches competitors how to be gracious and respectful towards others. Bad sportsmanship fosters a negative environment and can take the fun out of the game. Anyone can learn how to be a better sport while competing. Check out the following tips for displaying good sportsmanship:

1. Be a gracious winner. Being a sore loser when the other player or team wins isn't a good look, but neither is gloating over your win. Winning doesn't make one team more superior to the other; it means the winning team's skills and best efforts put them in the best position to win that game. You can be excited and happy for yourself for winning without taunting or putting down the opponents.

2. Play fair. Cheating at a game is poor sportsmanship. Fair play means having a level playing field. Every athlete or competitor has an equal opportunity to win, and no one has a more significant advantage or disadvantage over someone else. If you want to win at a game, everyone must start with the same conditions as the opposing team or player, and follow the rules of the game. Deviating outside of these guidelines may cause others to see you as a poor sport (including your team members), and no one will want to play with you in the next game.

3. Picture the future. Sometimes you'll have to compete against a friend, family member, or loved one, and it can be hard to put that relationship aside during competition and play a good game. Focusing on the future can help you get into the right mindset of competitive play.

4. Shake hands. It is customary of many sports to shake hands with the opposing player or team after a game.

Win or lose, shaking hands is a good sign of respect for the other people involved.

Ontime gives us flexibility, and their experience means they rapidly understand our requirements and how to meet our needs.

STUART ADAMSON, HEARTLAND PARTS.

- 2 WE will ELIMINATE the pain points associated with running your own transport and logistics operation.
- 3 WE will MINIMISE HR and Industrial relations risks and issues.

Round 3

29TH APRIL 2023

WESTERN WATER NETBALL PREVIEW by RDFNL Netball Manager Grace Bibby

Round three is a strange one with one game having already been completed.

Riddell and Woodend Heskett played their round three match on Good Friday.

Riddell took the points in impressive fashion but the Hawks were not at full strength with reigning Ryan Medal winner Tye Coppinger not available.

Before we get stuck into the previews we must mention some incredible results from round two.

Despite losing Western Rams young gun Lia Seumantafa put on one of the best shooting displays the league has seen in recent years.

She scored 47 goals from 50 attempted giving her a percentage of 94%.

Seumantafa is no stranger to featuring in the best but those stats are ridiculous.

Katie Clarke also showed everyone she is like a fine wine as she was judged most courageous in a dominant display for Macedon on Anzac Day.

Looking ahead to the round three matches it will be interesting to see who steps up this week.

Macedon have a well earned break with the bye but Diggers Rest will have to play with a four day turn around.

All three games will be close so if you take part in the weekly tipping competition good luck. I know I will need it.

DIGGERS REST VS LANCEFIELD

On Saturday we had our first look at Lancefield and although the scoreboard wasn't in their favour it was good to see them competitive in their first hit out.

Diggers Rest also struggled against a much stronger Macedon line up.

Both teams could use a win to find some early confidence.

Lancefield have lost young power house Tarnee Hammond to a football injury and we know the changes Diggers Rest have made.

This game will be a really competitive and exciting game for both clubs.

Prediction: Lancefield to win in a close one.

MELTON CENTRALS VS ROMSEY

Both teams come into this match on the back of close losses at the hands of Wallan.

Romsey had the bye last week which gave them more time to heal their wounds and they will be ready to fire today.

Melton Centrals were super competitive across all four quarters but couldn't edge in front as the final siren sounded.

Melton Centrals have continued to improve and grow their list over the off season and their hard work from previous seasons is starting to show.

For Romsey they welcomed back so many familiar faces this year but it may take some time for them to gel and find their feet.

Cayley Blair was outstanding in their opening match of the year.

Romsey will have to push through without their coach Lena Way.

Prediction: Melton Centrals to win their second game of the season.

WALLAN VS WESTERN RAMS

Wallan have a new look team and their energy is contagious. If one player laughs they all laugh and at the minute they are 2-0 and there are plenty of smiles.

Western Rams have fallen short in each of their two matches but they haven't been far away.

Last week they called in a former Interleague shooter Bec Hicks but we are unsure how many games she will play.

We have previously mentioned how good Seumanutafa is, and we hope we see a lot more of her at senior level.

With her ability and smarts she plays well beyond her years.

Prediction: Western Rams to record their first win of the season.
